

At 23

Donots

Sick of dancing to somebody else's song
Although I know the moves, the rhythm feels all wrong
Breathe out while I'm waiting (at 23)
Reach out for something sedating (to set me free)
At 9 in the morning everything's still out of tune
Teenage dreams at 23 will drop dead in the afternoon
Breathe out while I'm waiting (at 23)
Reach out for something sedating (to set me free)
Don't ask me what you ought to do
Can't help it, I don't have a clue
Don't ask me - you know it's true
Don't ask me what you ought to do
Can't help it, I don't have a clue
It seems like they all know what's best for you
(What's best for you)
"Cease to resist, giving my good-bye"
Sometimes life's a drag
But we'll have our comeback
We're all superstars
And this ain't the curtain call
