Your Way Home

I wake up I scream you to sleep I'm on your hands And i'm in your dreams Don't tell, don't tell no one Nowhere for you to run Don't tell, don't tell no one Don't tell Take the next train or the ambulance Take the downers or the shaking hands On your way home I'm everywhere You'll never be alone I pull the strings And i know your way home Don't tell, don't tell no one Don't tell Take the next train or the ambulance Take the downers or the shaking hands, yeah You'll run away, i'll start to dance I'll be with you and Take the next train or the ambulance On your way home I won't let go On your way home Don't tell, don't tell no one Nowhere for you to run Don't tell, don't tell no one Don't tell Next train or the ambulance Take the diamonds from the shaking hands, yeah You'll run away, i'll start to dance I'll be with you and Take the next train or the ambulance Don't tell, don't tell, don't tell, don't tell Whoohooo, yeah, don't tell no one
