

Between Cities

Donovan Woods

I could drive a thousand miles
I don't even know what it's like to be tired
On and on, between the lines
No, I don't even know what it's like to be tired

Come on, leave the house, lock the door
No, we don't even know what we're trying for
On and on, just seeing lines
No I don't even know what it is like to be tired

She ain't spoke since we left her street
So I didn't know she fell asleep
She might love me
Between cities

Every night in, every night out
Every night in, every night out
Every night in, every night out

Come on and call it off, come on slip away
You're going to marry a guy better than me
I know, I know you won't twist them words
I ain't ever going to know what it's like to be yours

Come on, leave the house, lock the door
Though you don't even know what we're trying for
All alone between the lines
And you ain't ever gonna know what it's like to be mine

And we haven't spoke since we left her street
So I didn't know she fell asleep
She might love me
She might love me
Between cities

Every night in, every night out
Every night in, every night out
Every night in, every night out
Every night in, every night out
Come on, darling
Every night in, every night out
Oh come on, darling
Every night in, every night out
Every night in, every night out
Every night in, every night out
Every night in, every night out