

Last Time I Saw You

Donovan Woods

Last time I saw you
You arrived with someone else
I was happy just to see you
But I kept it to myself

Last time I saw you
Your hair had gotten long
And the people I was sitting with
Asked me what was wrong

Last time I saw you
We did not even talk
I had gotten high
And then I wished that I had not

Last time I saw you
I don't know where we were
It could've been a birthday
But it wasn't mine or yours

I don't know why it's always bleeding at the edges
Why that whole night keeps on tearing at the seams
I guess it might be that this is just a bunch of guesses

I'm told that you left early
I can't speak to that at all
But if you were wearing a jacket
Then it must've been the fall

Did we smile at each other
For a moment through the crowd
Well, even if we didn't, hell
That's nice to think about

Last time I saw you
It was a year or more ago
And I would've made a bigger deal
But how was I to know

I don't remember every detail
But I keep on trying to
Because last time I saw you
Was the last time I saw you
