

I live on my own now
I don't know where to sit
I bought a couch
I got a chair
I don't feel attached to it
And what I do, don't do it
It takes a man twice as strong to stick to it

I'm not saying it's stupid
But I'm saying it's not good
I'm not saying it's stupid
But most people would

I could just write all day, love
You could just paint all day, love
It's a Lawren Harris way, love
It's a Lawren Harris way, love

And what he does
You can't teach it
You can't open his mouth and just preach it

I'm not saying he's gifted
I'm saying he's damn good
I'm not saying he's gifted
But most people would

I could just write all day, love
You could just paint all day, love
It's a Lawren Harris way, love
It's a Lawren Harris way, love
