

Lonely People

Donovan Woods

Lonely people
Everywhere, everyday
Lonely people
Nobody wants to feel that way
And it ain't got nothing to do with you
They're still that way in a crowded room
Lonely people
Like me and you

Some nights are gonna move so slow
Sometimes you're gonna wonder why your heart feels broke
Find a way to let it out
'Cause there's something beautiful about
Lonely people
Lonely people

Lonely people
Wrote every song you ever loved
Lonely people
Named you and raised you up
They might be somebody close to you
You mighta held 'em and never knew
Lonely people

Some nights are gonna move so slow
Sometimes you're gonna wonder why your heart feels broke
Find a way to let it out
'Cause there's something beautiful about

Knowing that you're not alone
There's a little bit of lonely in everyone you've ever known
We can all make it though somehow
'Cause there's something beautiful about
Lonely people (Lonely people)
Lonely people
Lonely people (Lonely people)
Lonely people
Lonely people
Lonely people, yeah

There's something beautiful about
Lonely people
