

No offense, Saskatchewan
I've only been inside you once
Were those the golden days?
I would swear it was

So she gave you all her love
Heaven knows it was enough
If I was you, my dear, I would pray for us.

I was planning to go somewhere warm with the money.
I was planning to go somewhere warm with the money.

No offense, Saskatchewan.
You live a lie, you live a lie, you live a lie.
But, I ain't one to talk, dear.
So did I, so did I, so did I.
So did I.

So you made it good, my love.
And heaven knows it wasn't right.
If I was you, my dear, I would spend the night.
Oh you sense it, I know you sense it.
Oh, you know that it's time.
If I was you, my dear, I would tow the line.

I was planning to go somewhere warm with the money.
I was planning to go somewhere warm with the money.

No offense, Saskatchewan.
You live a lie, you live a lie, you live a lie.
But, I ain't one to talk, dear.
So did I, so did I, so did I.
So did I.
