

The Light that Would Fade

Doom:vs

I'm plagued
By the silence you brought upon me
Suffering
In the desolate laps of time
Tearing the flesh from my bones

Endless eternity awaits

The tears embrace me
Life, erases me
The failure within becomes now clear
The light will forever fade
As my life, forever fail

I'm nailed to the cross of my own creation
Torn...divided within
Reaching an end to it all

I'm lost with despair
No one's left to care
Alone... abandoned
To die by myself

Endless eternity awaits

The light that would fade appears now clear
So cold. the sudden breeze of death
Cleansing the soul, from my pain

Smothered by life
Emptiness takes hold
Eternity shines brighter
Than ever before
