

Confusion

Doom

Stuck in a maze, a labyrinth of hate. Shattered doors in A mask of haze. Struggling madly in a cage. Desperately Searching for a way out of the maze. Running blindly not Feeling the floor, nothing to stand on we fall. Lost in The halls, I'm looking for the doors. Confusion! My Senses are dying. My soul is crying. Let me out, let me
Out! I'm screaming! Running blindly through the visions.
Barefoot and defenseless. Running blindly through the Dark, infested woods. Time and time again. Disillusion.
I'm deeper in the maze. Further from the light. I scream
Out of the confusion. I'm being consumed by confusion. My

World has been shattered. Crippled. All we have left is Fragments of doors. Though we once had but never had.
We've all been fooled. Confusion. My senses are dying my Soul is crying. Let me out. Let me out. I'm screaming.
I'm living in a demented labyrinth. tortured. Lost.
Crippled. I'm a part of this confusion. Shattered Confusion. Shattered vision. All that I have left is Illusion. I'm screaming at the confusion. I'm being Consumed by confusion. In an abstract, in a world of Confusion!
