

The Everlasting Arms

Doris Day

When you walk with love
Night will turn to day
Love will take you in His arms
And help you on the way

Love will make you free
Free from all alarms
Love will give you eyes to see
The everlasting arms

When you walk with love
Dawn is everywhere
Love, His mood, to bless and end
The meadowlands of hate

Which the home God sees
Over hills and farms
Come into the refuge of
The everlasting arms
