Dorrough Music

North side, South side, East Coast, West Coast, Mid West

From my city to yo city (Dallas, Texas)

From yo hood to my hood (say)

Right now, I present, to the world...

Tomeka Pearl

Put one hand

Cross my heart

Want nothing see me apart

From my home, where I start

I'm too smart and all I know is

You can take me from my hood

But you can't take my hood from me

I rep my hood it's understood

Say what'chu want but all I know is

Say

It's a funny day in the hood

And everybody and they momma out I must admit today I'm kinda feeling good

Ain't nobody beefing, and none of my niggas out up in the fed's

So the laws ain't gotta be said, cause it's understood

And you know the game

It ain't nobody showing love unless you gotta name

And don't nobody turn they head unless you hoggin' lanes

Ain't nobody breaking bread unless you do the same

You know the game boy

Either you ride on heavy Chevy's or gliding

On the Pirellies and sliding, pulling women to trying

Best believe that we grinding, getting it where I stay

We getting it every way and safe

Before the end of the day all the ballers ballin', All the jockers jocking

All the hater's hating, all the boppers bopping

Old lady cool, probably take her shopping

Real G's let me hear it if you feel me knocking

You can take me from my hood

But you can't take my hood from me

I rep my hood it's understood

Say what'chu want but all I know is

Check me out, I'm holding, steady like I'm rolling

Riding thru yo hood I chunk the deuce up like I'm posing

Riding thru yo city rolling gutta like I'm bowling

First I get it live then shut it down like it's closing

Early, long wide worly

Kicking one deep cause you boys act girly

Or maybe with a sweet big ice cream swirly

Wrist gold neck, gold teeth, white pearly

And you can catch me like fish fries on a Saturday

Ya momma looking good I like the way she worl her hunny day

She hopped up in the Slab, I say 'What'cha wanna do today? '

She looked at me and smiled then said, 'Boy I'm doing you today'

Foreal? I guess that mean that I'm official now

It took awhile but now they recognize I'm on a mission now

Stop, listen I got that full attention now
Since I got attention it's the perfect time to mission out that

It don't really matter much where I be
Never will you find another G like me
You see a lot of people try to be like me
But never will you find another G like me
(Tomeka)

Man I'm repping my hood for a long, long time
Never will you find another hood like mine
I hope that people got it understood like mine
Cause never will you find another hood like mine
