

Forgot to Smile

Dot Hacker

If I forgot to smile
If I forgot to smile
Kept my feelings down a while
But now I'm gonna throw them up

Stop acting like a child
How can I when I never grew up
And I really know how to rile
I swear make your move or put that thing away
Put that thing away

If we let the pieces fall
Who's left to pick them up

This is the wild
Any way you tritely slice
With Calamine all over your bleeding sores

If I lived a thousand lives
I'd still never do what you done

We'll liquify your light
We've always enjoyed your style
Really how important is living live
Caution is a kite

The alter sacrifice
You look so good when you're dying

I miss calling you mine
And I know that I forgot to smile
I wish I knew what you wanted to hear
