

Bleeding

Dotan

Heart aches
Mistakes
Just to Fall back again
Is it all
Just too late

I know
It's been long
Missing
Your pretty face
I'm too drunk
Keep missing the days

But all I had to say is
I love you, I love you
Even when you broke my heart
I still want to, I still want to
Oh, I keep running from it in my chest
It's all I ever do
But all I had to say is
I love you, I love you
Now I'm bleeding for the truth
Now I'm bleeding for the truth

Long nights
Cold fights
Just like
We're back again
Wide eyed
Staring away

Cause all we ever did was just not enough
I'm oh, so sick and tired of this burning love
Some things
Will just never change

But all I had to say is
I love you, I love you
Even when you broke my heart
I still want to, I still want to
Oh, I keep running from it in my chest
It's all I ever do
But all I had to say is
I love you, I love you
Now I'm bleeding for the truth

I keep on running
I keep on running
I keep on running from it in my chest
And I keep on running
I keep on running
I keep on running from it in my chest
And I keep on running
I keep on running
I keep on running from it in my chest
And I keep on running

I keep on running
I keep on running running

But all I had to say is
I love you, I love you
Even when you broke my heart
I still want to, I still want to
Oh, I keep running from it in my chest
It's all I ever do
But all I had to say is
I love you, I love you
Now I'm bleeding for the truth
Now I'm bleeding for the truth
