

Numb

Dotan

I've been lost inside a million eyes
They don't see me, they don't know what it's like
Trading colours into black and white
No one's reading all the words to the right

Oh, feel the weight of the world in my bones
Try to swim but I'm sinking alone
Always falling in the deep unknown

Now I'm fighting with my hands up, hands up
Feel the bullets from your hand rush, hand rush
I can see your body in touch, in touch
'Cause I feel numb
So infected with your bad blood, bad blood
Keep on running till it blows up, blows up
All I wanted was your real love
But I feel numb

Silent voices to a distant crowd
I'm still singing but there's no one around
I keep screaming till my lungs run out
But no one listens, no more words coming out

Oh, feel the weight of the world in my bones
Try to swim but I'm sinking alone
Always falling in the deep unknown

Now I'm fighting with my hands up, hands up
Feel the bullets from your hand rush, hand rush

I can see your body in touch, in touch
'Cause I feel numb
So infected with your bad blood, bad blood
Keep on running till it blows up, blows up
All I wanted was your real love
But I feel numb

I feel numb, numb
(All I wanted was your real love)
Numb
(But I feel numb)
I feel numb, numb
(All I wanted was your real love)
Numb
(But I feel numb)

Oh, feel the weight of the world in my bones
Try to swim but I'm sinking alone
Always falling in the deep unknown

Now I'm fighting with my hands up, hands up
Feel the bullets from your hand rush, hand rush
I can see your body in touch, in touch
'Cause I feel numb
So infected with your bad blood, bad blood
Keep on running till it blows up, blows up
All I wanted was your real love

But I feel numb

I feel numb, numb

(All I wanted was your real love)

Numb

(But I feel numb)

I feel numb, numb

(All I wanted was your real love)

(But I feel numb)
