

Tonight

Dotan

Lost in the dark
Follow the shadows of broken
Love, where's your light?
Oh it's caught in a fight, keep it open

Tonight, the walls are breaking down for love
Tonight, our souls are eating us alive
Tonight, the calm came in while the storm came out like

Our bones made of stone
Cracks came along while it's breaking
Out of this world
Oh it moves while the Earth keeps shaking

Tonight, the walls are breaking down for love
Tonight, our souls are eating us alive
Tonight, the calm came in while the storm came out like

We're walking tonight
We're walking tonight
We're walking tonight
We're walking tonight

Far, so far from this old dark place
There's a light, it's shining your way
And nothing, nothing but peace in our minds
It's glowing out of the day
Far, so far from this old dark place
There's a light, it's shining your way
Nothing, nothing but peace in our minds
It's glowing out of the day

We're walking tonight
We're walking tonight
We're walking tonight
We're walking tonight

Far, so far from this old dark place
There's a light, it's shining your way
