

You Didn't Stop To Say Hello

Dottie West

It's a middle of the night
What's on your mind I'd like to know
Your coming here just isn't right
You didn't stop to say hello
Is she walking out on you
Or did you choose to let her go
There must be something on your mind
You didn't stop to say hello
Well, come on in, close the door
Don't stand there trembling in the cold
You'll have the neighbors talking more
I'd better turn the lights down low
And go ahead and shed a tear
Don't be afraid to let it show
You know I'll always landed near
You didn't stop to say hello
What's a matter, can't you see?
For you haven't said one single word
You look so tired and so weak
Things must be worse than what I've heard
Oh, I guess it's useless to pretend
Because you know I love you so
You know you're welcome back again
I'm glad you stopped to say hello
