

Missing You

Double You

Oh yeah
I never needed anyone
To throw me on the floor
Every time you walked away
I would always say

Remember all the times we had
But you would run away
Remember all our yesterdays
And all that was before

I'm missing you
I'm missing you
Oh to be missing you
Missing you, missing you
Missing you, missing you

I'm missing you
I'm missing you
Oh to be missing you
Missing you, missing you
Missing you, missing you

I never needed somebody
To show me to the door
I gave you all the best I could
But all you gave was war

Every time you walked away
I would always say
Remember me like yesterday
I'll miss you more and more
