

Jock Stewart

Dougie MacLean

My name is jock stewart
I'm a canny young man
But a roving young fellow I've been

And so be easy and free
When you're courting with me
I'm a man you'll no meet every day

Though I've got acres of land
I've got men at command
But my money I foolishly spend

I took out my gun
And with my dog I did go
All down by the banks of the tay

And so come fill up your glass
Of whisky and beer
And no matter the cost I will pay
