

Restless Fool

Dougie MacLean

Oh restless fool can't you wait a minute longer?
Oh restless fool can't you wait until you're stronger?
For there's things that you don't know
About harvesting the field
There's things that you don't know
And without a little time they will never be revealed

Oh restless fool don't leave them all behind you
Oh restless fool you'll disappear they'll never find you
For there's things that you don't know
Of how the lady likes to dance
There's things that you don't know
And without a little help you may never find the chance

Oh restless fool you don't hear a word I'm saying
Oh restless fool you can leave but I am staying
For there's things that you don't know
About this wild illusive dream
There's things that you don't know
And it's certain sure nothing is the way it seems
