

She Will Find Me

Dougie MacLean

He walks he does not run
He has no overwhelming need to fly
His heart remains unbroken no need to search the sky
But me I've found that place
I wander recklessly ..and

CHORUS

I know that she will find me
I know that she will find me
Even if I vanish without trace
O and though I'm running blindly
I know that she will find me
Hiding with the shadows that I chase

No-one can rock his boat or make standing waves upon his sea
Everything is calm and even steady safe as it can be
But me I've never found that place
I wander recklessly ...but

CHORUS

Sometimes we search too deep that's when the darkness feeds our fear We turn away from one another just in case we get too near Me I stand this mountain top
I shout so she can hear ...and
