

Cathedrals of the Mind

Doves

In the bar room, in the back room
I hear you calling out my name
Automatic reaction
As I hear your footsteps in the hallway

Everyday I see your face
Everywhere I see those eyes
But you're not there

Cathedrals of the mind
Searching for a sign
And you're never lost in mine
In cathedrals of the mind

In the back room, in the ballroom
I hear the crowd going insane
I hear them talking, I see their faces
I hear them calling out your name

Everywhere I see your face
Everywhere I see those eyes
But you're not there

Cathedrals of the mind
Waiting for a sign
You're never lost in mine
In cathedrals of the mind

You're never lost in mine
And I hear voices lost in time

Cathedrals of your mind
You're never lost in mine
