Those eyes they transmit
All your loving
Echoes light into dark hearts
I would swear I've seen this, left beside me
Your eyes they hypnotize

She keeps me here so spellbound Her love pulls me near to stranger ground I've lost my mind there This dark magic mirror, spellbound

A heart-shaped face With words as cold as stone I can't believe this is my fate

She raised your head

Now the night, it's coming down

I accept this fate i accept my love you won't be long

You keep me here so spellbound

Your love pulls me near to sacred ground

I lost my mind there

This dark magic mirror, spellbound

And i can't leave now

Leave her now

Leave her now

She keeps me near so spellbound
Her love pulls me near to stranger ground
I lost my mind there
This dark magic mirror, spellbound
This dark magic mirror, spellbound
So spellbound
So spellbound
So spellbound
