

Don't Even Care

Down with Webster

Okay, okay, alright, alright, alright, okay
Why they always spitting game to me but claim they never play I'm not even tryna hear it though cause everything they say to me is boring, that shit corny, they just don't have ?
Say they're out here for their chills but they're out here tryn a slip on the fruits of all my labor hoping they might get a bit
When they ask me for my number I don't hit em' with the digits
I just tell em' dial zero, that's how many fucks are given

Cause' I don't know them and they know me
So I don't let that shit control me
Cause' I don't even care, no, I don't even care
Cause' I don't even care, no, I don't even care

Alright, alright, okay, okay, okay, alright
They've been logging on the internet like every single night
Always tryna post a comment bout' some shit that they don't lik e
But I don't even read those comments, they're just hoping that I might
But when they see me though they switch and they ask me for a p ic
They should change their name to Richard, how they're hopping o n a dick
When they ask me for my number I don't hit em' with the digits
I just tell em' dial zero, that's how many fucks are given

Cause' I don't know them and they know me
So I don't let that shit control me
Cause' I don't even care, no, I don't even care
Cause' I don't even care, no, I don't even care

I don't even care about even caring about not caring bout' what
I don't even care about
I don't really give a oh! I don't really give a what!
You know I don't give a oh! I don't really give a shit

I don't even care about even caring about not caring bout' what
I don't even care about
Cause I don't really give a oh! I don't really give a what!
Yeah, I don't give a oh! I don't really give a shit

Cause' I don't know them and they know me
So I don't let that shit control me
Cause' I don't even care, no, I don't even care
Cause' I don't even care, no, I don't even care

Cause' I don't know them and they know me
So I don't let that shit control me
Cause' I don't even care, no, I don't even care
