

Redesign Rebuild Reclaim

Downstait

Redesign Rebuild Reclaim!
Redesign Rebuild Reclaim!

This is the final hour, a higher standard
Had the chance to leave, but they threw it away
It's time to show them we won't keel
Grab all your guns, grab all your knives
Grab your pitchfork and fight for your life
Prepared to die on my feet

I'll shed blood to prove my loyalty
You'll break bone to show me pride
Tear the flags down, end the tyranny
Fly new colors, change the world

Scream out, voices loud, weapons of this world
We bow to no one

Revolution, devolution
Black out the windows, raise the underground
This is not the end, this is just the beginning
Light the torches, burn the bourgeoisie
This rebellion, we are hellions
We are not afraid

I'll shed blood to prove my loyalty
You'll break bone to show me pride
Tear the flags down, end the tyranny
Fly new colors, change the world

Scream out, voices loud, weapons of this world
We bow to no one
Burn it down
Bring the fire right up to their door
We are the future

Redesign, Rebuild, Reclaim..
Redesign, Rebuild, Reclaim..

Redesign Rebuild Reclaim!
Redesign Rebuild Reclaim!
Redesign Rebuild Reclaim!
Redesign Rebuild Reclaim!

I'll shed blood to prove my loyalty
You'll break bone to show me pride

Bring the fire right up to their door
