

Don't Joke With Fire

Dr. Alban

You're living in darkness
you've got to come to know the truth
you've got to come to see the light

Attention attention my name is Albatjov me come for tell you about a thing called love we have a lot of jealousy so you see today's friends are tomorrows enemy a lot of them are sleep a me say lot of them are work know ya know ya have to reap what you so we used to be friends but now we go apart we used to be cool but now we don't talk

Ask me why boy I don't know maybe it's jealousy between me and you maybe it's my progress nor is it my dollar is I've always been thinking that you are the chosen one but your attitude problems I can't explain I keep wondering how you can go so far one day you might end up being having no friends count me out 'cause JaJa says so

No more wicked people what is left one love
no more wicked people what is left one love
no more wicked people what is left one love
no more wicked people what is left one love

Anything me wanna do me do it one time a me say anything me wanna do me do it one time I no care what people say and my no care what they chat me just talk sense get pan the max them a wonder why I man get so far 'cause their attitude problems I can't explain get up and stand get up and stand and stand up for your right
I said get up and stand get up and stand and stand up for your right

Me say man me no take no bullshit from anyone
anything me borrow me have to give it back again anything me lend me have to give it back again go tell your friend a when me come me come again go tell your friend a when me come me come rough

You're loving money more than people give a love at people more than money

if it's one god one aid one destiny
I told the fellow in the world for you and for me
you should be living in the light

Thee keep no other thing one nickel buy the rich a would a live and the poor would a die but this is not it I want to see it - one love

One love (one love) one love (one love) one love (one love) one love

you've got to make a sacrifice

one love

No more wicked people what is left one love
no more wicked people what is left one love
no more wicked people what is left one love
no more wicked people what is left one love
