

Magic

Dragon

Somebody who stands in line
Somebody like you
Who believes in a better time
Can't explain something new
We can stand in the arms of fire
Sometimes sorrow and joy
Scale the mountain in moments of desire
Fly so high you never know
You're lost all the time of the do or the die

I believe it's only magic
I believe love is on it's way
I believe it's only magic
I believe love is on it's way

I am a fighter with open arms
I am a man on my own
Things look true in the dead of night
Daylight turns passion to stone
This is the season of true desire
The wild wild things that we do
We can't stand it we are on fire
The sky may fall, the seas go dry
It makes no difference to you and I

I believe it's only magic
I believe love is on it's way
I believe it's only magic
I believe sweet love is on it's way

I believe it's only magic
I believe love is on it's way
I believe it's only magic
I believe sweet love is on it's way

I believe it's only magic
I believe love is on it's way
I believe it's only magic
I believe sweet love is on it's way
