

The Defendant

Dragonsfire

You see the end, it's closing in
The charge is high for you
Your life's not in your own hands now
A sentence will be passed
And no one knows,
You're betrayed and sold

Never surrender, your soul is the price to pay
You're the defendant and liberty so far away

Rage against in fear
When justice is blind
Your life in their hands
But they will never mind
You stand alone
You are blamed
They're gonna take your life
Your guilt has been claimed

The night before the trial begins
You can't find your sleep
The accusations are in your head
You scream the whole night through
And no one knows,
You're betrayed and sold

Never surrender, your soul is the price to pay
You're the defendant and liberty so far away

Rage against in fear
When justice is blind
Your life in their hands
But they will never mind
You stand alone
You are blamed
They're gonna take your life
Your guilt has been claimed

Never surrender, your soul is the price to pay
You're the defendant and liberty so far away
