Dream On, Dreamer

At the end of the day we are all the same.
With honesty we can achieve anything.
We can achieve anything!
Don't waste a possibility, don't wait for a chance to end.
Put your soul into what you love and make history instead.
Whichever way you choose to go it all happens for a reason.
We can all be there in the end, if you don't fear to fall to hell.

I won't hide my pride anymore.
I want to fill my heart with love.

I want to see the depths in things.
All you need is persistence.
At the end of the day we are all the same.
With honesty we can achieve anything.
We can achieve anything!
Don't waste a possibility don't wait for a chance to end.
Put your soul into what you love and make history instead.
Whichever way you choose to go, It all happens for a reason.
We can all be there in the end, if you don't fear to fall to hell.

Don't just watch me rise...
Be the one who rises with me.
Don't just watch me rise.

Don't ever stop halfway through.
I can see the fuel to your fire.
I like the pain as the flame hits my eyes.
All the memories saved inside me, I now call mine.
