

I've tried to find the words to say
Give me a moment to think
I'm learning how to breathe
Call me when you want to, tell me it's okay
Sometimes it's hard to believe what you can't see

'Cause I've already chosen
The chain is already broken
I still hear you claiming you'll never love again

Watch me break apart
Facing what I'm not
How did I make it out this time
Through visions we learn to walk the line
Watch me shine

I've tried to make it go away
The pain that I feel left me with broken dreams
Tell me how much longer will it take to end?
Sometimes we've got to believe in better days

'Cause I've already chosen
The chain is already broken
I still hear you claiming you'll never love again

Watch me break apart
Facing what I'm not
How did I make it out this time
Through visions we learn to walk the line
Watch me shine
Watch me shine
Watch me shine
We learn to walk the line
Watch me shine

I can hear you every night
With loneliness inside me
I will hear you out if you want to Open your heart when you're hurting
I'll give you every second
You will understand that you're worth it

Watch me break apart
Facing what I'm not
How did I make it out this time
Through visions we learn to walk the line
Watch me shine
Watch me shine
Watch me shine

Watch me shine
