

Whirlwind of emotions.
I let myself be carried away.
Place without intrusions.
Where I know I am not afraid.
Fight my Paranoia
(Now)
I Bring out the best of me.
(They can't scratch me)
It's time to prove it. Got a lot to give.

Lives that revolve around frequencies.
Melodies turn into energy.
Everything changes when I press Play
And all of the sorrows feel far away.
(So take me through the storm...)

Safe harbour in the night.
Only stars as a guide.
Despite the wrongs I've suffered,
I don't look back in anger.
Safe harbour where I'm anchored.
A refuge to come back to.
Life of Love and Passion.
This is the sound of truth.

Restored once more.
I think I found my way to live.
Dedication, motivation pour out of me.
Headphones on. Magic begins.
Just take me far away.
This song is revolution,
a tale of my liberation.

Lives that revolve around frequencies.
Melodies turn into energy.
Everything changes when I press Play
And all of the sorrows feel far away.
(Now take me through the storm...)

Safe harbour in the night.
Only stars as a guide.
Despite the wrongs I've suffered,
I don't look back in anger.
Safe harbour where I'm anchored.
A refuge to come back to.
Life of love and passion.
This is the sound of truth.

I am feeling way too light
when I stop time and lock the world outside.
Way too light. Alone with my mind.
And music will take me tonight
One more time
