

You Got Another

Drive-By Truckers

I see you're runnin', baby, out of time
I see you're runnin', babe, we're way out of line
You got another and you'll go to her
You got another and you'll go to her

Babe, it ain't funny, we've got a lot of love
And only God knows where the hell it come from
You got another and you'll go to her
You got another and you'll go to her

I see you're runnin', baby, out of time
I see you're runnin', babe, we're way out of line
You got another and you'll go to her
You got another and you'll go to her

Babe, it ain't funny, we've got a lot of love
And only God knows where the hell it comes from
You got another and you'll go to her
You got another and you'll go to her
