

Don't Be Like That

Drowners

How can you say that with a straight face when it's eight months down the line?

Please don't treat me like a stranger cos I've put in too much time.

If we're forced to be apart, then I'll make up some complaints.

For a lifetime in the dark begins to weigh down.

Back when you were blonde and I was green to your ways.

Back when you were blonde and I was green to your ways.

I still wanna be involved, I just can't make those mistakes.

"Don't be like that," is all you have to say.

That lad pins all of his luck onto that flipped up cigarette.

I re-read the words you wrote then I scroll through my regrets.

If we're forced to be apart, then I'll make up some complaints.

For a lifetime in the dark begins to weigh down.

Back when you were blonde and I was green to your ways.

Back when you were blonde and I was green to your ways.

I still wanna be involved, I just can't make those mistakes.

"Don't be like that," is all you have to say.
