

Long Hair

Drowners

Barely nineteen, I see you every night
Whispering between us girls
Oh yeah, between us girls
I don't think of him that often any more

All the girls had long hair
All the boys had long hair
You were missing out

Once a week I keep an evening free for you
Does he, teach you things?
Does he, teach you things?
That you'd never do for me, oh I know what you mean

All the girls had long hair
All the boys had long hair
You were missing out

All the girls had long hair
All the boys had long hair
You were missing out

All the girls had long hair
All the boys had long hair
You were missing out
