Don't be scared of your shadow You can't hide from your sorrow You can't stay here till tomorrow

Welcome to the club of broken hearts Where a thousand lonely souls have passed

Sooner or later you're gonna wake up
And find what you're looking for
Like a diamond wahsed up on the shore
In the meantime you're feeling like you're lost without a frien d
Sooner or later you're gonna love again
Sooner or later you're gonna love again

Love has left you rejected You put u your defenses Now, your heart's been tried and tested Now you join the land of broken dreams No good wishing for what could've been

Sooner or later you're gonna wake up
And find what you're looking for
Like a diamond wahsed up on the shore
In the meantime you're feeling like you're lost without a frien
Sooner or later you're gonna love again
Sooner or later you're gonna love again

Don't be scared of your shadow You can't hide from your sorrow

Sooner or later you're gonna wake up
And find what you're looking for
Like a diamond wahsed up on the shore
In the meantime you're feeling like you're lost without a frien
Sooner or later you're gonna love again
Sooner or later you're gonna love again
