

Steelheart

Dungeon

Turning our back on society's treason
Kicked in the face, your rules - we don't need 'em

We do what we want
And say what we like
Never held back
Remain unchained... UNCHAINED!

Think you're taking us down?
Well, I've got something to say

Won't beg and we won't break
Your way we'll never take
We're the masters of our fate
We were born with a steelheart

You follow the blind, don't question the reason
Open your mind - it will lead to your freedom

We'll be what we want
And say what we please
Never held back
Forever we're unchained... UNCHAINED!

Think you're taking us down?
Well, I've got something to say

Won't beg and we won't break
Your way we'll never take
We're the masters of our fate
We were born with a steelheart
