

The Final Chapter

Dungeon

Born in a barren desert
Walked on the burning sands
Said don't look back and so we ran

And as our moods were changing
Journey to distant lands
The demolition time began

PRE-CHORUS 1:
Oh, a destiny of power
Invincible, forever we survive

CHORUS 1:
Climbing up the mountain
And we're reaching for the sky
Feeling the hunger burn, it's do or die
Go one step beyond
To try and reach the other side
On the horizons edge
The final chapter will arise

And as we ride the stormwind
Deny there's no way out
The resurrection time is now

And in our rise to power
Higher we dare to go
One step beyond the land we know

PRE-CHORUS 2:
Oh, and some of us may falter
But nothing can destroy our will inside

CHORUS 2:
Climbing up the mountain
And we're reaching for the sky
Feeling the hunger and it's do or die
Go one step beyond
To try and reach the other side
On the horizons edge
The final chapter is in sight

SOLO: LT

There's no turning back
As we travel on
And the lessons learned
There's no fairy tales
Oh no....

SOLO: LT

CHORUS 3:
Standing on the mountain
And we're reaching for the sky
Just beyond our reach, we wonder why
See the world so clearly now

We've reached the other side
The future clear at last
The final chapter has arrived

CHORUS 4:

Diving from the mountain
And we're falling through the sky
Finding a greater truth, another life
Like a phoenix rising up
In flames it's time to die
All past is laid to rest
The final chapter realised
