

In the Darkness

Dustin Kensrue

I'm always running scared through an endless night
The moon is just a memory, her and her fabled light
But when I close my eyes sometimes I dare to dream
But I'm sure nobody cares for me
No one's there with me...

In the darkness
In the darkness

Sometimes I'll howl a tune to hear it echo back
Then clutch it like some ancient rune to ward off the black
But when the wolves join in I hold my breath and shake
'Cause I'm sure nobody cares for me
No one's there with me...

In the darkness
In the darkness
In the darkness
I'm sure nobody cares for me, no one's there

But now I'm standing here beneath that great abyss
Staring up I feel my legs give way, I feel a ghostly kiss
I hear the hidden stars sing out the one true myth
They're singing that you care for me
And you're there with me...

In the darkness!
But I'm always running scared
In the darkness
Could it be you're really there
In the darkness?

It's more than I could ever dare to dream
That you would care for me
That you're there with me
In the darkness
In the darkness
In the darkness
Do you care for me?
Are you there
In the darkness?
