

Dawn Of Insanity

Dyslesia

The terror in the flesh
I know I'll be damned
Don't turn off the light
I know what I will say
Such a sad tune in the air
It's always the same
It's the dawn of insanity
It's not the moment to be afraid

Chorus:

Climb, and see all the memories in the wind
Climb, and see the voices steal the life
Scream, nobody could be the king
Scream, use your words like a knife

Wild eyes searching a beam
Like a final desire, to see the sky
Touch the flowers feeling, he's still alive
Breathing the breeze will be just a drea,
It's the dawn of insanity
It's not the moment to be afraid

Chorus
