Inside I am all yours
but my body is someone else's now

Everywhere I see you, everywhere I go I can feel you it is slowly getting to me, messing everything in my life

You've been gone for quite some time I've been makin' it alright then I saw you it hurt thought that it was finally over but I can't stop wanting to be with you

Inside I am all yours
but my body is someone else's now
