

Damned By Yourself

Eagleheart

You and I, we're sailing the ocean of everlasting pain
When you're in depths I'm your healer
Keep all of your restrained emotions and dreams within your mind
Cause they are all that remain

You were not able to live your life
So here I am to find a way by your side

Say that I'm your salvation from grief and agony
And I will show you my hell

I am the voice ruling in your mind
A shame that you are trying to hide

Damned by yourself there's no turning back
Lost in the cage of your soul
Praying for wonders but there will be none
Silence is screaming you're gone

I stare in the mirror but there's another man with my face
Without me you're nothing so realize you can't escape
My tears flow in rivers when I die in life's tragedy
Tempted by evil in disguise you've sealed your destiny

Damned by yourself there's no turning back
Lost in the cage of your soul
Praying for wonders but now it's too late
Welcome to where there's no fate
