

Anything 'Cept the Truth

Eagles of Death Metal

Ask me why I came so late?
Ask me why I made you wait?
What's the story, what you ought to know?
I had a little fight, I was dancing at a go-go

I'll tell you anything baby except the truth
I'll tell you anything baby except the truth
I've got nothing but everything to prove
I'll tell you anything baby except the truth
I've got nothing but everything to prove

I never smile when I tell a lie
I swear the only one tonight
I never smile when I tell a lie
Hey, ooh, oh yeah

Ask me if I can be true?
Ask me where I'm going to?
I say I love you but you ought to know
I only love the night and I always have a go-go

I'll tell you anything baby except the truth
I'll tell you anything baby except the truth
I've got nothing but everything to prove
I'll tell you anything baby except the truth
I've got nothing but everything to prove

I never smile when I tell a lie
I swear the only one tonight
Hey, oh
