Don't Hate Me

Earshot

K', Mister Lonely, you don't know me anymore I bled for you, now bleed for me something more I've got a fire inside, from all your bullshit and lies in all your efforts to break me Look deep and on in my eyes, see the disgust in this voice Will you remember, will you remember? Don't hate me When you're feeling alone Don't hate me Cause I got something you don't Don't hate me You will remember Don't hate me When you freak out I'll pull the plug and take you under Cut you like no other 'Till my dying day 'Till the day I die Baby, baby as I say 'Till I sense [alone?] Someday, day, day, will come the day You will remember When you remember Don't hate me When you're feeling alone Don't hate me Cause I got something you don't Don't hate me You will remember Don't hate me When you freak out Don't hate me When you're feeling alone Don't hate me Cause I got something you don't Don't hate me You will remember Don't hate me When you freak out Won't be long 'Till your world comes down in flames You lead, I followed, then you tried to take it all away Tried to take it all away Tried to take it all away Tried to take it all Don't hate me When you're feeling alone Don't hate me Cause I got something you don't

Don't hate me You will remember Don't hate me When you freak out

Don't hate me When you're feeling alone Don't hate me Cause I got something you don't, don't, don't, don't, don't Don't hate me You will remember Don't hate me When you freak out

Oh yeah When you freak out, yeah Freak out Mmhmmm... Hmmmmm... MmmHmm-mmm... Mmm...
