

Nice To Feel The Sun

Earshot

Sometimes I feel as though my life's getting stranger
Now I need to find a way to get this strain off of my back
Sometimes we need to lock the doors
And throw away the key
Sometimes we need to live and let be

It's nice to feel the sun

So I awake to find that I'm in no danger
I finally found the strength I need still spinning on my back
And now I feel the sun
Shining down on me
Sometimes we have to live and be free

For days now I waited for the light to shine
Shine down on me
