

Devoted to Death

Earth Crisis

Can't reset to the time before
Who I once was is never more
The lesson that echoes forward
From the distant past
A gear that turns times cyclical
Balance is cast
Singular dimensional
Biological automatons
An alternate reality
Where lives are used as pawns
Choke down the jagged fragments
Left mutilated within
Struggle to maintain the anger's suppression
I can't erase the actuality
That plagues my thoughts incessantly
Singular dimensional
Biological automatons
An alternate reality
Where lives are used as pawns
Singular dimensional
Biological automatons
An alternate reality

Where lives are used as pawns
How could a life be Devoted to death?
Beyond belief how can this be
It baffles my mind
Beyond belief how can this be
It baffles my mind
Singular dimensional
Biological automatons
An alternate reality
Where lives are used as pawns
Singular dimensional
Biological automatons
An alternate reality
Where lives are used as pawns
How could a life be Devoted to death?
How could a life be
Devoted to death?
Beyond belief how can this be
It baffles my mind
Beyond belief how can this be
It baffles my mind
