

Thunder

East 17

When the thunder calls you from a mountain high it's time to spread your wings and fly
when the thunder calls you under purple sun
to the place where horses run

When I saw your face I knew you were the one in a sky that's filled with rain a ray of sun
I called you on the phone said your happy on your own when I heard your body cry for my love

Your body's calling me
your body's calling
I think I'm falling
woohhhhhh

When the thunder...

A picture in my mind I thought I'd never find is laying here right next to me like a vision in a dream you don't know what it means or was I just too blind to see

Your body's calling me
your body's calling
I think I'm falling
woohhhhhh

When the thunder...

I'm all confused
like a child with a choice of toy so much to gain
so much to lose
it's a pain
I know I'll enjoy
I guess I'm going crazy everyone's telling me so do you feel the same that is all I need to know

When the thunder...
