Too Young To Kneel

Echo & the Bunnymen

Who's gonna hold you When you're too scared to feel? Who's gonna cure you When the pain won't heal?

Who's gonna be there When the world goes wrong? Who's gonna tell you You're the only one?

In my blood, in my soul In this mind of mine Can your touch turn me cold? Make my glitter shine?

Who's gonna reach you When you can't be caught? Who's gonna teach you What you can't be taught?

Who's gonna beat you When you won't be fought Who's gonna buy you When you can't be bought

In my blood, in my soul In this mind of mine Can your touch turn me cold? Make my glitter shine?

Who's gonna pray for you When you're too young to kneel? Who's gonna fake it When it gets too real?

One more question answered In the falling star I heard they found Death on Mars

In my blood, in my soul In this mind of mine Can your touch turn me cold? Make my glitter shine?

In my blood, in my soul In this mind of mine Can your touch turn me cold? Make my glitter shine?
