

So Good To Be In Love Again

Eddie Money

When I was young and supposedly free
I sat around my house a lot lonely
And I closed my eyes and I couldn't see
I filled my head with make believe

And I was fooled, now
By a pretty face - I was, I was
But you came along, baby, and you took her place
And I love you, baby

Then I, now, well, I drifted through
This lonely big old world of ours, now
Till I met you

I'm no longer lonely, now
Don't need to pretend
I said it feels so good, so good, it does
To be in love again

I remember when I, now, I drifted through
This lonely big old world of ours
Till I met you, and baby, baby

I'm no longer lonely
No need to pretend
Because it feels so good, so good, it does
To be in love again

I'm no longer lonely - no, no, no, no
Don't need to pretend
I said, it feels so good, so good, it does
To be in love again, now yeah

It feels so good, so good, it does
To be in love again, now yeah

It feels so good, so good, it does
To be in love again

Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah

So good
Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah

So good
Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah

So good
Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah

Yeah yeah

Yeah yeah