

It's Lonely Out Tonite

Eddie Rabbitt

A neon sign is flashing in the window
"America's finest beer"
The jukebox banging, the bar bell clanging
Well, it's getting pretty loud in here
Everybody's dancing, looking for romancing
Baby, so am I
Why don't we get together
Change the weather
'Cause it's lonely out tonight

It's lonely out, tonight
You look beautiful
A pure delight
Don't you think maybe

You could be my baby, tonight
I can't believe it
There's a feeling in the air
Electricity is everywhere
Why don't we get together
Change the weather
'Cause it's lonely out tonight

I got a brand new pickup, parked out in the backlot
Shining candle-apple-red
Why don't we pop back one more, beat it out the backdoor
The party hasn't started yet
I got it bad for you, first time I looked at you
And those sexy eyes
Why don't we start a fire out of pure desire
'Cause it's lonely out tonight

It's lonely out, tonight
You look beautiful
A pure delight
Don't you think maybe
You could be my baby, tonight
I can't believe it
There's a feeling in the air
Electricity is everywhere
Why don't we get together
Change the weather
'Cause it's lonely out tonight

A neon sign is flashing in the window
"America's finest beer"
The jukebox banging, the bar bell clanging
Well, it's getting pretty loud in here
Everybody's dancing, looking for romancing
Baby, so am I
Why don't we get together and
Change the weather
'Cause it's lonely out tonight

It's lonely out, tonight
You look beautiful
A pure delight

Don't you think maybe
You could be my baby, tonight
I can't believe it
There's a feeling in the air
Electricity is everywhere
Why don't we get together and
Change the weather
'Cause it's lonely out tonight
Why don't we get together and
Change the weather
'Cause it's lonely out tonight