

With You

Eddie Stoilow

I'm your friend, I'm your river
I know it's really hard for you
I'm your blood, your spirit
Part of you

I can't stand it, but I have to
Have to face it, but I can't do
It's hard to blame someone for this game
I feel alone without you

When I was looking to your eyes
I saw thousand souls and hearts in you
When I was listening to your talks
I met a freaking ghost in you
I'm with you

I'm screaming
You're leaving

Now I'm older, getting wiser
And that's what really man should do
It's alright, I must tell you
But that's alright

Now it's my turn and I know it
Have to work hard and not blow it
It's hard to blame someone for this game
I feel alone without you

When I was looking to your eyes
I saw thousand souls and hearts in you
When I was listening to your talks
I met a freaking ghost in you
I'm with you

I'm screaming
You're leaving

When I was looking to your eyes
I saw thousand souls and hearts in you
When I was listening to your talks
I met a freaking ghost in you
I'm with you

I'm screaming
You're leaving
