

Ready, Willing and Able

Eddy Arnold

Ready willing and able
I'm all set to fall for a gal like you
Ready to tick you in my arms willing to hold you tight
Able to give you hugs and kisses morning noon and night

Because I'm ready to love you forever
Willing to give up and settle down
I've never felt like this before
Don't keep me waitin' anymore
I'm ready willing and able
[steel - guitar]
Because I'm ready willing and able
I'm all set to fall for a gal like you
Ready to tick you in my arms willing to hold you tight
Able to give you hugs and kisses morning noon and night

Because I'm ready to love you forever
Willing to give up and settle down
You better get me well I'm in the mood
Get me while the gettin's good
I'm ready willing and able
